

Forming a Discerning Body

Calgary, Canada

Dienstag, 22-Okt-19

We, members of the FCJ General Chapter, begin each day in our “home groups”, which are the groups we had for faith sharing during our pre-Chapter retreat.

After a short inspirational reading or song there is time for silent reflection and then sharing.

These groups provide an opportunity for us to explore various topics together; for example, the matters of greater importance which were submitted by sisters all over the world before the Chapter. Please click on the pictures to see a larger version.

Sometimes we group ourselves differently in order to delve more deeply into some topics. There is also time for general discussion among all of us. We feel ourselves becoming more and more, a discerning body.

More on our General Chapter on the Chapter News page and on social media #FCJChapter2019.
