

FCJs mark two centuries of dedication to education

Edmonton, Canada

samedi, 21-Sep-19

The FCJ Sisters were instrumental in founding and developing Alberta's Catholic school system. And today, they are ready to face current challenges head on, including adjusting to their own changing roles. Srs Michelle, fcJ, teacher and chaplain at St Thomas More school, Edmonton, and Sr Elizabeth, fcJ retreat leader and the spiritual director at St. Joseph's College, speak of the rich history of the FCJ sisters, especially in the Edmonton area.
