

When words are not enough

London, UK

Thursday, 22-Nov-18

Music has always seemed to occupy a unique place in the human imagination. And in the Catholic imagination St Cecilia's feast day continues to be the occasion for concerts and music festivals all over the world and through her, numerous songs, poems and paintings celebrate the 'heavenly harmony' that music brings into our lives.

Read Sr Teresa's reflection for the feast of St Cecilia on the importance of music in our spiritual lives in the Jesuit website Pathways to God

“ Courage and confidence! God will do it all in his own good time. ”

Marie Madeleine d'Houët